

Summer Reading Goes Digital - Incoming 6th Grade

This summer, the PMS Summer Reading Program is partnering with the Pelham Public Library to bring you free access to books. Overdrive is a downloadable audiobook and eBook service offered by the Westchester Library System. Overdrive contains thousands of titles! However, only two or three digital copies of a book are available for check-out at the same time.

All you need is a library card. If you do not have a library card or it's expired, please email pelhamlibrary@wlsmail.org to get a new card. Once you log into the library system, you can join wait-lists and check out books for 7 or 14 days to be read on Kindles, computers, phones, or other devices.

Both you and your friends want to read the same title? No problem! With Hoopla, everyone at PMS can read the same book simultaneously through the Pelham Public Library! Hoopla provides unlimited access to an assortment of e-books/audiobooks, movies and tv shows.

Brown Girl Dreaming - Jacqueline Woodson

Raised in South Carolina and New York, Woodson always felt halfway home in each place.

In vivid poems, she shares what it was like to grow up as an African American in the 1960s and 1970s, living with the remnants of Jim Crow and her growing awareness of the Civil Rights movement. Touching and powerful, each poem is both accessible and emotionally charged, each line a glimpse into a child's soul as she searches for her place in the world.

Woodson's eloquent poetry also reflects the joy of finding her voice through writing stories, despite the fact that she struggled with reading as a child. Her love of stories inspired her and stayed with her, creating the first sparks of the gifted writer she was to become. (Non-Fiction, Poetry)
